I've waited for The Color of Destiny since I finished The Color of Heaven and I am not disappointed. I love this contemporary romance series. Julianne MacLean's flesh-and-blood characters walk in every community, and their connected stories show us that happiness waits if we persevere through hardship and loss and suffering - if we learn along the way and remain open.

The Color of Destiny is an excellent 2nd book in the series. I gave Color of Heaven 5 stars and Color of Destiny was really good also. It is difficult to summarize what the story is about without revealing spoilers, however, it is a smartly written story of 2 people that are interwoven and surprising.
